Customer Reviews

I've had some form of car-a-day calendar on my desk for years. Corvettes, Mustangs, classics, exotics, etc. Received this one for Christmas and so far I mostly like it - although it is missing an important feature (full month view) and some the visual "pizzazz" of other daily calendars I've had in the past. In addition to the Corvette image there is an interesting fact related to the pictured vehicle printed on each page which is really nice. The actual date text on the calendar is kinda on the small side, but the red text on white background located on the lower-left of each page is easy enough to read. My main complaint is that the daily calendar I had last year (Mustangs) also included a small full-month calendar on each page - that's not on this one, but there is plenty of empty space which could have been used for this feature on the lower-right of each page. Seems like a really odd omission to not include an actual calendar on a calendar!

I love corvettes, have owned a couple myself. I buy one of these every year to put in the office, I get great pics of corvettes every day of the year. Love this calendar.

like Vettes Lets you track it's history

Happy, as expected.
