REVISED REVIEW I was contacted by Tuttle Publishing and was offered an improved version of the DVD free and was told that it was easier to navigate than the original version. This revision of my original review is based on the NEW DVD that was sent to me. ALL of the models are easily found on the updated DVD by either paging through several projects at a time (located at the bottom of the menu next to Projects), by clicking on Index (which lists all projects), or by simply selecting Play All (which will play each project on the DVD). I am MUCH happier with the new DVD and am happily folding my favourite of the projects, the butterfly. I am very happy with how the publisher resolved the issue and was kind enough to send us a replacement DVD. Tuttle has provided excellent customer service and I look forward to purchasing more titles from them and the authors of this kit.-----ORIGINAL RATING: ORIGINAL TITLE: Book is average to good. DVD was severely lacking._ORIGINAL REVIEW_ My son and I were extremely excited when we purchased this kit from a local bookstore. We enjoy leaving our tips for waitstaff in various origami forms. We were looking to expand our repertoire with this book. The diagrams in the book are better than average. It was a little hard to tell by lines alone which was the valley fold and mountain fold as sometimes the illustrations were small. There are times when I believe a little more instruction was needed for some of the more difficult models. As to the DVD. I had assumed that the DVD would include ALL of the models contained within the book. It DOES NOT. It only includes the X Wallet, Eye Ring, Stand Up Shirt, Mr.
