Janette Oke has written and Cheri Bladholm has illustrated a wonderful book about the gift of memories. A great springboard to launch a discussion of memories within your family and circle of friends. I'm giving this book along with homemade jam (memories of summer) and disposable camera (to capture future memories) to family members whom I don't get to see often.

"Making Memories" written by Author Janette Oke and Illustrated Cheri Bladholm is a beautiful book I picked up at the library and so very glad I did. The drawings in this book are stunning along with a meaningful story about about a Grandfather and Grandson making memories together.I highly recommend this lovely book to all young readers and their families.

This is a wonderful book with beautiful illustrations. This is a must have for any bookshelf. It is a heart warming family story. I found this book while I was doing research for a Childrens Literature class. I read it once and fell in love with it and knew I had to have it.

A very sweet book! I enjoyed reading it to my youngest grandchildren. We love making memories! I've always enjoyed Janette Oke's books!
