Look for the deeper meaning in this short story. A tiny blue bird can lift you above it all. Easy to read it keeps you interested without being predictable, wanting to see how it ends. Along the way there are spurts of inspiration and places to laugh. As you read you may think to yourself that you've felt that way before. The word 'layabout' was one I could become fond of, don't think I'd seen this word. The character, Freddy seems like a kid in the beginning yet as the story unfolds his thoughts and experiences are those of an adult. For a book, this was a short read. This book's cover appeals to a child yet the story presents an adult theme.
