Customer Reviews

I bought this as a goody bag item for a 4 year old at my daughter's birthday party. The cards are bright, cute and worth the money! My goal is to provide a thorough review to assist others with their purchase, as there are many choices on and I personally rely on reviews when making most of my purchases. If my review was helpful to you, please choose âœyesâ below. Otherwise, choose ânoâ and please leave a constructive comment and I will take your thoughts and/or suggestions into consideration for future reviews.

I liked these cards, but wish three things: 1) that they included more interesting fish pictures (like sharks, whales, etc). All the fish sort of look alike to me! 2) I wish that the pictures of the fish were more distinct in how they appear on the cards (the fish are 'lost' in the pictures by all the background colors & scenarios). And 3) I wish the numbers on the cards were larger.

I use these sturdy colorful playing cards as a fun way to develop thinking, decision-making, turn-taking, and social skills for my 3 year old granddaughter. Being an avid diver I am always looking for ways to reinforce her love of the water. Besides playing the Go Fish game I am working with her learning the names of fish.

My 5 year old son loves these, they are a nice big size and they have a bit of a matte finish to them so they are not too slippery to hold for him. The one drawback is that they are a bit thin, which makes them bend easily when you are trying to shuffle them.

Nice pictures of aquarium fish that many of us actually have in our aquariums. Cards are also numbered which is nice. Also, there is info. on each card about the fish. My 3-yr. old is learning the game and does quite well and likes it. The cards are large but that is good, in my opinion. A good buy and fun game.

While we enjoy using these cards for our Go Fish game, they cards are SO LARGE that it's hard to hold onto them! I have a hard time myself, so you can imagine my poor 6yr old son trying to hold his hand of cards! He usually ends up laying them down since it's too difficult. I like the cards, and it's fun for him to learn to read the fish names as well!

The pictures are bright and very nice. The large dimensions of the cards make them easy to see. I was disappointed in the thickness or weight of the cardstock, which is not as thick as regular playing cards. Thus they bend and crease in my child's small hands when picked up. Not a problem I expected to encounter in cards designed for children.

I bought these for my niece she likes playing Go Fish. I really liked the card detail. The only thing I do wish about these cards is that they were a little bit smaller. My neice had a hard time holding them up. Other then that they are good cards. We really enjoy playing, they make the game a lot funner and the kids get to learn about the fishes on the cards.
