Background frames and papers for behind photos make for fast scrapping, but the fun doesn't stop there, with all over prints on some the pages can be used for cardmaking, covering small notebooks or boxes. And with the pages coming in sets that match the possibilities become endless! A new page every day!! Tons of cut outs in the centers of the frames too, this is a fun set that will keep you crafting all year and looking forward to the next day!

This scrapbook calendar is awesome for easy scrapbooking. There are really cute themes, and you get the small accessories to use in place of stickers. This is one of my favorite scrapbooking tools, and I look forward to it each year. When my sister didn't find one to give me for Christmas this year, I went on to order the 2011 calendar for myself. When I saw the 2008 calendar was also available, I purchased that one also for scrapbooking purposes. I never use this as an actual calendar, but love the creativity of all the different themes. Enjoy!

I purchased this as a gift for my mother. She loves it. It has a page per day for each day of the year. There are dozens of themes with several pages coordinating on the theme. Many are seasonal, others topical (such as fish, birthday, birds, flowers, etc. The pages can be used for journaling, matting pictures, etc. We have been purchasing them for several years.

I've bought many of these calendars for my daughters and friends. They are all a lot of fun. Will be buying more of the different kinds and for many years hopefully.

Came in perfect condition
