Customer Reviews

Not like the previous years calendars. It's made and holds together well. But the content just appears to be lacking, especially in comparison to previous years. I purchased this for the simple reason that my office thoroughly enjoyed the 2015 - 2013 years from Sports Illustrated. But this year, there appears to be less imagination, and less enjoyable content. This is the overwhelming theme among the entire office. It's to the point where we've gone and looked for something to replace it. Don't get me wrong, there are bikinis and other similar clothings, but the fantasy and magic of previous years isn't felt in the 2016 year's calendar.

would you believe a Five-Star review without a verified purchase. i got a great deal from allposters.com on Black Friday. buy the Day At A Time Calendar every year since I spent a year in Iraq. My way of celebrating the passing of another day. kept on dresser, tear off every morning, stuff in shirt pocket to keep notes and wrap around receipts.

I have this calendar on my desk at this moment and is on my Christmas list every year. I have enjoyed it for many many years.....until now. In the past it has always been professional in every way.....except the construction. I've never really liked that but, the photo quality was usually very good and the models even better. 2016 is like an amateur found these models, shot the photos, and then printed them on cheap paper. To me the entire 2016 (almost) is a big step backwards. A few of the best models are from previous years but even they aren't enough to bring it up to par. I'm writing this in September so I've been looking at this for almost 9 months. Almost every day I complain. I never thought I would complain about a scantily clad woman's picture but, the truth is I'm just not satisfied and I fear this is the future of Sports Illustrated Day at a Time. This is the first year I've even considered asking for something else to grace my desk next year. Oh, there has been one good thing.....I've got plenty of "note" paper for grocery lists and such.

With the calendar how else can you get the most beautiful women in world to wake up to her in a bikini and her and her friends

The best calendar on the market. Good quality pics, no constant repeats (Hello Maxim), and a variance of beautiful women. My yearly gift!!!

I purchase this calendar every year for my husband and he relly enjoys them. What's not to enjoy!

Of course I like the calendar! Who wouldn't?! However, there is one HUGE omission. There is no Kate Upton. Somehow I will survive.

Arrived in good time and the recipient was surprised and delighted by the gift. Thanks.
