Because A Little Bug Went Ka-Choo

Synopsis

Little things can have a big impact, as in this funny Beginner Book by Dr. Seuss (writing under the name Rosetta Stone) and Michael Frith. When a little bug sneezes, he unknowingly sets off a hilarious chain reaction that wreaks havoc clear across town. From a toppled turtle to a sinking ship to a disrupted circus parade, Because a Little Bug Went Ka-Choo! takes a hysterical look at consequences in a way that only Dr. Seuss can. Originally created by Dr. Seuss, Beginner Books encourage children to read all by themselves, with simple words and illustrations that give clues to their meaning. "A little bug sneezes, causing a chain of calamities. Repetition helps beginning readers and cartoon-like characters add zest."--School Library Journal.

I just got done reading this book (yet again) to my children before bed. I imagine my mom probably read it to me about a hundred times, too. If you read this book, (and I highly recommend that you do) you, too, will be captivated by it. And do not miss the illustrations, there's something new every time you look!

This is one of Dr. Suess's books written under his pseudonym Rosetta Stone. This book shows once again what an amazingly clever man he was. Each of my children love this book. And I just finished reading it to my youngest son's preschool class. They enjoyed it so much they asked me to read it a second time! It is a fun and extremely enjoyable book for everyone!!!

This was one of our 2 children's favorite story books. I read it over and over and I never got tired of repeating the story night after night. Now I have the pleasure of reading to our grandchildren with the same joy and delight. It's fun and lyrical. A family favorite for 2 generations!

This has to be the funniest book I ever read to a child. I laughed so hard, I had to stop reading till I got myself under control. I read it at a friend's home. Then, I had to buy a copy for my own grandchildren.

I got this book for my toddler and he loves it. He is of course not reading it all by himself since he is not yet there, but he loves the whole story. He knows now what is coming next. I feel this is one of the best books we have got for him. Def kiddo's Fav.

When our grandson was 1 1/2 yrs. old I got this book from our library. He LOVED it and wanted it read over and over and over. By the time he turned 2 yrs. old he had the story line memorized and can tell you everything in the book by sequence.

By the time I was four years old I had this entire book memorized. My parents knew better than to skip pages, because I was paying attention. It is an adorable book about a little bug that sneezes and all the things that happen because of it. Who knew that a little sneezing bug could sink the ship "Mary Lou"?

This was my favorite book as a child so I ordered a book for my daughter. She loves it too! She always asks me to read "Ka-Choo!" and she likes to act out the scenes. This will be a fun book to share with your child. The illustrations are fantastic and each scene has a lot of animals and characters to look at. I think the best part is hearing your child yell "Ka-Choo!" It's very cute.
